

CCA's Expected Student Outcomes

Students will be discerning and appreciate who God is and understand the gospel and salvation through Jesus Christ.

Students will be effective communicators and read and write skillfully and purposefully.

Students will become rational and critical thinkers.

Students will become life-long learners and maintain intellectual curiosity.

Students will be moral and ethical citizens and make ethical decisions from a biblical perspective.

Students will be servant leaders and exercise good stewardship through using their gifts and talents to serve others.

CCA is committed to equip learners for excellence, embrace biblical worldview principles, and empower servant leaders for Christ.